

Gushcha Artem Professor Neurosurgery, Dr.Med.Sci.

Professor Artem Gushcha appointed as Chief Department of Neurosurgery Research Center of Neurology Russian Academy of Medical Sciences in October 2011. He received the title and serves as Professor Neurosurgery in Russian Academy of Sciences, Neurosurgery Chair since 2008. His clinical and research direction includes minimal invasive and endoscopic spinal neurosurgery, spine degeneration, cranial neurooncological pathologies, functional neurosurgery. He has published in field of minimally invasive surgical approaches, cervical myelopathy, endoscopic treatment of spine degeneration, flexible intrathecal endoscopy, spinal cord stimulation etc.

Since 2014 Professor Artem Gushcha – The President Russian Association of Spine Surgeons, since 2019 – Vice President.

He is the Bronze member of EuroSpine, member of North American Spine Society, Member of Editorial Board of Journal World of Neurosurgery, Spine Surgery and other Russian and international neurosurgical societies.

In 2021 Gushcha Artem elected as EuSSAB official representative in EuroSpine.

Experience working in Neurosurgery since 1992 (29 years).